

JACKIE BURKE
psychology & consulting

TRAINING PROGRAM

Best Practice Clinical Case-Note and Report Writing

Overview

Clinicians are required to effectively document their work in the form of case notes, but many struggle to understand exactly what is required, and find a way to incorporate case noting smoothly into their workday. Stop struggling with case notes. Know what you need to document and apply tried and tested methods for completing this necessary and important task without stress.

What This Program Will Teach You

This course will equip participants to understand the requirements relating to their clinical case notes and assist them to find a method for completing them with timeliness and ease. Participants will be equipped to immediately apply their learning in their work.

Who Should Attend

All helping professionals.

Duration

Full Day

Max Participants

25

Learning Outcomes

- Understand the important functions of clinical case-notes.
- Fulfil the legal requirements for clinical case notes.
- Understand why it is so difficult to ensure smooth case notes.
- Problem solve clinical case noting using a variety of proven methods.